We also provide a fully contemporary and relaxed atmosphere, seating for 110 patrons, perfect for any occasion. Our chefs will cater for parties of all sizes. View our a la carte menus, fine wine list, midweek taster and takeaway service that we offer. We look forward to serving you.

We have our own large private car park, with ample spaces available for all our customers.

Admiral of the Fleet, Louis Francis Albert Victor Nicholas Mountbatten, 1st Earl Mountbatten of Burma, was a British admiral, statesman and an uncle of Prince Philip, Duke of Edinburgh. He was the last Viceroy of the British Indian Empire (1947) and the first Governor General of the independent Union of India (1947 - 48), from which the modern Republic of India would emerge in 1950. From 1954 until 1959 he was the First Sea Lord, a position that had been held by his father, Prince Louis of Battenburg, some forty years earlier. He died in 1979.
